CHABAD JEWISH STUDENT CENTER

Everyone ages, lives and heals in their own unique way. Very commonly, emotional barriers make it difficult for friends to be naturally engaged. A Care Community is a private, invitation-only online place that a family can quickly and easily create in helping their loved ones to connect as it's comfortable. A Care Community removes emotional barriers and enhances outlook and resilience.

Online Care Community

Invite friends and family to join - only those you invite will have access

Private Blog

Participate in healing dialogues - at everyone's convenience and comfort

Care Calendar

Simplify loved ones' ability to naturally and conveniently rally 'round

Photo Sharing

Upload loved ones' smiling faces - brightening outlook and peace of mind

Social Storytelling

Celebrate a loved one's life from everyone's hearts, minds & actual voices

It's quick and easy to set-up your own private, online Care Community. Create yours today simply by visiting our website to view the brief video and get started.
